

AUSTRALIAN SAILING

Amendment to the Special Regulations

Issued on 20 September 2023
Effective from 20 September 2023

PART 2, SECTION 3 FIXED EQUIPMENT

Delete the text that has been ~~struck-out~~ and insert the text that has been underlined

3.28 HULL IDENTIFICATION

3.28.1 Boats shall have on both sides or on the transom in legible characters a minimum of 50 mm high: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7

- (a) The boat's name.
- (b) Its state marine authority number of sail number.
- (c) If the boat has no state marine authority number, the sail number and the name of the club.
- (d) The name of the club may be abbreviated.

~~3.28.2 Boats shall have either on the deck or on each side near the bow, an identification number, which is either the boat's sail number or a race number specifically provided by the race organiser as specified in the notice of race. The number shall be in a highly visible contrasting colour to the background hull or colour patch.~~ 1

3.28.2 Each multihull shall show on the underside, where they can be seen when inverted, not less than 2 areas of highly visible colour (e.g. Day-glow pink, orange or yellow) of at least 1m2 each. 1 2 3 4